

The Great Gourd Gathering

Gourd enthusiasts! Mark your calendars for Saturday, June 2nd, 2012 (9:00am-4:00pm), and head to The Great Pumpkin Patch. Get ready for another fabulous Great Gourd Gathering in Arthur, Illinois. Anyone in the east-central Illinois area who would like to vend their wares or gourd art supplies, contact me at: Notaro@cell1net.net

Name: _____
Address: _____
City: _____ State: _____ Zip _____
Phone: _____
E-address: _____

Are you interested in vending booth space? Yes No

Brief Artware description [optional]: _____

Brief demonstration description (if applicable): _____

Will vendor booth need electricity? Yes No

☞ Vendors are responsible for bringing their own booth structures, equipment, materials, etc. ☞

Vendor space requires a $20 deposit in advance, with $10 to be refunded upon completion of vending from 9:00am through 3:00pm on day of festival, or a complete refund of this deposit if no sales are made. Vendors who do not show up for the festival do not receive a refund of any value.

Vendor is to be completely setup for foot traffic no later than 9:00am (grounds will be available by 7:00am for setup). Deposit to be payable to Bev Notaro and submitted to her with this completed application no later than April 6, 2012.

Are you interested in teaching a workshop? Yes No

Workshop title/description: _____

Workshop Fee: _____ Duration of class: _____ Minimum headcount: _____

Instructor to provide: _____

Students to provide their own: _____

Class will need access to:

electricity Yes No
water Yes No

*Your event contact person is ILGS Regional Director, Beverly Notaro, 490 N CR 2175 East, Oakland IL 61943;
www.freewebs.com/bevs Gourds Notaro@cell1net.net

Workshops require a site fee of only $1/student (so a $10 class can be slated as an $11 class, etc). On the day of the festival, students pay entire workshop cost directly to instructor; instructor pays the site fee to TGPP upon completion of the workshop on day of festival. Application for teaching a workshop must be submitted to Bev Notaro by April 6, 2012.

1749A CR 1900N

ARTHUR IL 61911

217-543-2394

WWW.THE200ACRES.COM